

'Good Neighbor' Program Launched

A person-to-person campaign to build the old-fashioned trait of neighborliness will be recommended to members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., this Saturday at 11 a.m.

"The object of this campaign," Pastor David H. Pillor said, "is to enable our members to be of greater help to the community. We expect to find among our 'unknown neighbors' those who are sick, lonely or discouraged, and thus can give help where our assistance would be appreciated.

"CALLERS FROM the Adventist Church will not be pressing into their neighbors' affairs," Pastor Pillor continued, "but will be calling to offer help and also an opportunity to study the Bible if there is a desire. Most people know little about the Bible, but would like to at least have an understanding of the book which has affected the world more than any other set of writings," the pastor said.

"In a time when billions of pages of literature — many of them morally debasing — are flooding our homes, it is important that all concerned citizens become better acquainted with the ageless wisdom of the Holy Scriptures," Pastor Pillor said a simple, easy-to-use Bible course will be offered during the visit to help toward this goal.

THE BIBLE course is being made available by the international radio program, "The Voice of Prophecy" (or television program, "Faith for Today"). Millions of these lessons have been studied with interest by persons in all parts of the world. These students have included the uneducated as well as university professors, ministers, and church leaders of many denominations.

'Gospel Wagon' To Aid Derelicts

A bright green wagon drawn by a spirited team of Belgian draft horses down Main Street on Monday morning, June 2, may temporarily tie up traffic around Los Angeles City Hall, but not for long. The LAPD has been duly notified and is prepared to handle it as a courtesy to the Union Rescue Mission.

What is the occasion? The Mission is celebrating its 78th birthday by putting the old Gospel Wagon back into operation as it commemorates the early beginnings of its compassionate ministry to the needy and derelicts of the community. Aboard the wagon will be the Old Fashioned Quartet dressed in Gay 90's costume, plus Mission officials and their guest of honor, Councilman Gilbert Lindsey.

Arriving at the entrance of the Mission at 226 S. Main St., Councilman Lindsey and the officials will participate in a ribbon-cutting ceremony which initiates the beginning of Open House week, June 2 through 8, at the Mission facilities. All friends and neighbors of the Southland are invited to join in the celebration by visiting the Mission and by attending a special Mass Meeting in the Mission Chapel on Sunday, June 8, at 2:30 p.m.

The Sound Generation from the John Brown University will be featured on the program which will be climaxed by an inspirational word from The Reverend H. S. Vigeveno, local Presbyterian minister.

Hundreds of men are cared for daily by the Union Rescue Mission, and the free services offered to these destitute and disheartened fellows include food, shelter, showers, haircuts, clean clothes, employment, first aid and clinical services, in addition to spiritual counseling. Those interested in assisting the work of this non-profit organization are advised to mail all gifts to the Union Rescue Mission, Box 629, Los Angeles 90053.

Farewell Reception Planned

Members of Pacific View Baptist Church will throw a farewell reception Sunday for their organist-choir director, Shirley Lindsay. The event will begin at 6 p.m. in the church Fellowship Hall, 1610 Acacia Ave.

Mrs. Lindsay and her husband, Major Nathan Lindsay (USAF), will be moving to Eglin Air Force Base in Florida.

Choir members will present a "Salute to Shirley," re-enacting scenes which highlighted Mrs. Lindsay's 2½-year stint with the church. The evening will conclude with the choir's singing John Peterson's cantata, "Sound of Singing," with Mrs. Lindsay directing.

Program committee includes Mmes. Daniel Juhasz, Robert Dehn, and Milton Billigmeier. Refreshments and decorations will be provided by Mrs. Thomas Hall and Mrs. Harold Arterburn.

At 10:30 a.m. morning worship, Mrs. Lindsay will be featured soloist. The choir will sing "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Puppeteer Will Enter 'Lion's Den'

Roland Sylwester, a puppeteer and member of the art department at Lutheran High School, 2941 W. 70th St., Los Angeles, is presenting the premier of one of his newest creations, the Bible story "Daniel in the Lion's Den" at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hawthorne this week-end.

His puppet presentations of Bible Stories have attracted a wide following. Recently he presented the story of "Elijah and the Prophets of Baal" at Bethany Lutheran Church of Lakewood.

Students Score High On Tests

Lutheran High School students from the South Bay area have earned high scores on the National Education Development Tests.

They are Becky S. Graef, 5453 W. 122nd St., Hawthorne; Carol E. Kramer, 13708 S. Grider Ave., Hawthorne; Chris Kutschinski, 6614 Lockenna Lane, Palos Verdes; Deborah Scholz, 2123 W. 166th Place, Gardena; and Gwenn A. Smith, 13328 Manhattan Place, Gardena.

Lutherans 'The Soul And Body' Is Topic

In its observance of Pentecost Sunday, the birthday of the Christian Church, Immanuel Lutheran Church, 706 Knob Hill, Redondo Beach, will receive 21 young men and women into communicant membership through the rite of confirmation.

The rite, calling for the white robed confirmands to kneel for blessing at the Altar, will take place in the 11 a.m. service. Each new communicant will also receive his first communion at this service.

The rite of confirmation follows a two year period of study of the doctrines of the Christian faith as well as a consideration of the practical aspects of the Christian Life. Those completing the study include: Debra Davies, Mark Englert, Mark Esser, Douglas Fraleigh, Thomas Garner, Jerry Gray, Gayle Johnson, Gary Kremarik, Diane Kuecker, Kevin Kukul, and Tim Lunde, Patty Maratta, Judy Nagy, Michael Neas, Cynthia Palmer, Valerie Pointon, Bradley Ritterman, Terri Rupert, James Schappert, Rebecca Weseleh, and Patricia Yost.

Next weekend the new church members will travel to The Arrowhead Lutheran Camp for a specially prepared retreat.

CORONATION . . . Hours of Bible study and service to others were rewarded for these members of the Girls' Auxiliary of Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church when the youth group held its annual Coronation Service Sunday. Crowned Queen-with-Scepter was Brenda Ervin, shown at right with her escort Paul Dolton. With them are flower girl Julie Ervin and scepter bearer Michael Hardy. Cindy Fields, shown at left with her escort, Donald Nichols, was crowned Queen. With them are flower girl Claudia Ruffin and crown bearer Gregory Newman. Also shown are Princesses Cynthia Talley and Nancy Adams; Ladies-in-Waiting Debra Harris, Deborah Prewitt, and Jennifer Wallner; and Maidens Elizabeth Peake, Tanya Keefer, Janet Williams, Marcie Ervin, and Connie Nichols.

Girls' Auxiliary Crowns Faithful Bible Students

Brenda Ervin was crowned Queen-with-Scepter Sunday when the Girls' Auxiliary of Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church held its annual Coronation Service in the sanctuary. Miss Ervin's escort was Paul Dolton, with Julie Ervin as flower girl and Michael Hardy as scepter bearer.

All girls honored at the service are members of the weekly missionary group, ages 9 through 16, who have passed required steps in memorization of the Scriptures, knowledge of missions, and service to others.

Cindy Fields was crowned Queen, escorted by Donald Nichols. Claudia Ruffin was flower girl and Gregory Newman was crown bearer.

Princesses were Cynthia Talley and Nancy Adams. Ladies-in-Waiting were Debra Harris, Deborah Prewitt, and Jennifer Wallner. Maidens were Elizabeth Peake, Tanya Keefer, Janet Williams, Marcie Ervin, and Connie Nichols.

Narrators for the coronation were Mrs. Glynn Rendleman and Miss Ruby Hill. They were assisted by Girls' Auxiliary leaders Mmes. William Ervin, Rex McWaters, George Suffer, and Joe Ferrell.

Diane Davenport sang a solo and eight members of the Young Women's Auxiliary presented a choral reading. Candelighters were Cynthia Adams and Rene Gladu; ushers were Cindy Argabright, Toni Little, Alice Post, and Nancy Talley. Guest trumpeter was David Odo.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall following the rites. Hostesses were Susan Argabright, Paula Adams, Renee Revere, and Tana Jonsrud.

Theme of the coronation was "Crown Him Lord of All," according to Mrs. Ben Johnson, Girls' Auxiliary director.

'The Soul And Body' Is Topic

"Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth."

This verse from III John is the Golden Text of the Bible Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" that will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches. At First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th and Mancel Avenue, services begin at 11 a.m.

A correlative passage from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "A demonstration of the facts of Soul in Jesus' way resolves the dark visions of material sense into harmony and immortality."

Boy Tops Girls In Spelling Bee

For the first time in the history of the Lutheran School's Spelling Bee, which is in its 18th year, a boy took first place.

Edward Giron, from St. Paul's Lutheran School, 11329 McCormick St., North Hollywood, walked away with the coveted trophy which his school will be allowed to keep for a year, until the next spelling bee.

Pastor Will Conduct Rites of Confirmation

A class of 39 young people at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., will be confirmed by Pastor Elmer Christiansen at the 10 a.m. service Sunday.

This confirmation is the culmination of a three-year study program, preparing these young people for a more mature membership within the Christian Church. In this special service, these youths will renew the Covenant of their Baptism and pledge their loyalty to Christ as Lord.

On June 1, members of the class will join the congregation in their first Communion Service.

The congregation, through the Board of Deacons, will honor the following confirmands with a special dinner, at which time each member will receive a copy of the New Testament: Susan Anderson, Carol Atkinson, Michael Bankson, Nancy Bego, Sandra Chenoweth, Debbie Christianson, Brian Craig, Gregory Day, Jay Dickhudt, Barbara Drew, and Karen Fadick, Steven Ferruccio John Ford, Mary Foster, Vicki Giefer, Jeffrey Hudock, Larry Igo, Colleen Jaehnig, Nancy Johnson, Lelia Laitio.

Others Roger Lenander, Mark Long, Terry Marsh, William Mooney, David Moore, Steve Olson, James Penn, Sandy Purdie, Sandra Schmitz, Konrad Schwarz, More, Stephen Sloan, James Singley, Laurie Taylor, Sheila Thiel, Patricia Weberg, Paullette Wegelin, Gary Furnee, Carolyn Proctor, and Susan Proctor.

New officers for the Torrance Human Relations Council were elected at a recent meeting. The group replaces temporary officers chosen last fall when the Council was formed.

Walter E. Tyler Jr., and David Hall were selected as chairman and vice chairman, respectively, both having held those offices during the organizing period.

Others elected are: Russell West, administrative group leader; C. R. Berwanger, employment group leader; Mrs. Alice Hammond, community education group leader; and Mrs. Harvey Rosener, housing advisory group leader.

Sisterhood Will Install Leadership

Claire Frisman will be installed as president of the Sisterhood of Temple Menorah Wednesday, June 4, at a Lomita restaurant.

Other new officers are Natalie Kaufman, Helen Margolese, Essie Friedman, and Marilyn Sternfeld, vice presidents; Marcia Spanier, treasurer; Sylvia Goldenberg, financial secretary; Marian Feld, corresponding secretary; Elaine Ladenson, recording secretary; Edie Reichard, publicity; Sylvia Solomon, parliamentarian; Nan Satton, chaplain; and Tamar Unger, honorary chaplain.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP . . . Richard S. Conway (right), a senior at Bishop Montgomery High School receives a four-year scholarship certificate from J. C. Dalton, general manager, Pacific Region, for Continental Can Co.'s Folding Carton Division in Los Angeles. The Carle C. Conway Scholarships, named for a former chairman of the diversified packaging company, range from $500 to $1,800 annually, and are given each year on a competitive basis to the children and grandchildren of Company employees. Young Conway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Conway of 1715 Camino de la Costa, were on hand for the presentation.

BARNEY KINARD

Teenage Service Slated

Barney Kinard, youth minister at Torrance First Baptist Church, will be featured speaker at a special service for teenagers Sunday at the First Nazarene Church of Los Angeles. The service, slated for 11 a.m., will be given in both English and Spanish at the predominantly Mexican-American church. The Rev. Raymond Lopez is pastor.

Kinard will share the platform with The Burning Bush, a teen folk singing group from Torrance First Baptist Church. They will present a program of songs in both English and Spanish.

Directed by Tom Irvine, the Burning Bush spent their Easter vacations in Magdalena, Mexico, assisting in the work of Evangelical International Mission. While in Mexico, the group presented two live radio programs to promote the work of Pastor Edilberto Pacheco of the Magdalena Mission Church.

David Kelley Will Speak At Service

Rev. David Kelley, former sponsor of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Evangelical United Methodist Church, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

Rev. Kelley was recently appointed to the United Methodist Church at Durham, Calif. Billy Graham's films of his Tokyo Crusade will be shown Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. The program features a Sing-Along with Beverly Shea. All persons interested in the work of Billy Graham are invited to this service.
